ARRIVAL OF R.M.S ARNO.

IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE

The Arno brings dates from Paris and London to Oct. 9th, and Lisbon 13th.

The Arno left Rio Janeyro at 4 p.m. on the 7th inst., experienced fine weather most of the passage, and arrived at Montevideo at midnight on the 11th, and sailed from that port for Buenos Ayres at 4 p.m., on the 12th inst. The Arno brings specie valued at £51,500, of which £50,000 was landed for the Mana Bank at Montevideo, and £1,500 for Buenos Ayres.

From England we have most important news. Lord Derby has called for 20 millions £ sterling for public armaments, and is reorganizing the army on a war footing, besides ordering 60 new gunboats, which some interpret as referring to the new Turkish difficulty, and others think relates to Canada, where the Fenians still give cause for anxiety, and 10,000 men are to be at once sent thither. The Admiralty has sent a strong squadron to the Mediterranean under the pretext of observing events at Palermo. It seems now beyond a doubt that the Pope will accept British hospitality, but, instead of Malta, it is generally believed he will take up his abode in Dublin: few events could reflect greater credit on British institutions.

On the 3rd Oct. the treaty between Austria and Italy was signed at Vienna, Italy stipulating to pay 10 millions sterling for the Venetian debt and the material in the forts of the Quadrilateral. Gen. Lebœuf, of the French army, is to receive Mantua, Verona, Venice &c. successively and deliver them over to their respective municipalities. The Emperor of Austria renounces the title of King of Lombardy and Venice, and sends Baron Kubec as envoy to Florence. King Victor Emmanuel is now recovered and will make his triumphal entry into Venice in a few days. Some riots at Verona obliged the authorities to declare the city in a state of siege.

The Sicilian revolution was a serious business: the chiefs were two friars named Rotulo and Mielli, Col. Bentivegna, and Capt. Acquisto, who installed a Provincial Government composed of Prince Lignaglossa, Prince Monteleone, Duke Nicesni, Baron Butera and others. The insurgents numbered over 30,000, who held out for some time in the convents; some escaped and others fell into the hands of the troops. Ten of the ringleaders were taken and shot, and the Government has confiscated the convents and sold them by auction.

Prussian commissioners took possession of Hanover, Cassel, Nassau, and Frankfort, amid salvoes of artillery; and treaties have been concluded with Saxony, Bavaria, and Wurtemburg. Count Bismark is suffering from inflammation of the brain, and has retired to his estate in Pomerania. The Emperor of Austria is also in infirm health, and his physicians advise repose. Baron Beust, the great enemy of Prussia, is named Minister of Foreign Affairs at Vienna. Count Galuchowski, of Polish origin, is named Viceroy of Galitzia.

The emperor Napoleon is expected in Paris on the 12th Oct. from Biarritz, where he no longer expects a visit from Count Bismark or Prince Gortchakoff as spoken of. Marquis de Moustier on arriving at Marseilles from Constantinople, proceeded to Biarritz and then to Paris where he entered on his duties as Foreign Secretary. The Chambers are to meet on Dec. 3rd. Lord Lyons has been recalled from Constantinople to succeed Earl Cowley at Paris. Almost all the rivers in France have inundated the country, owing to the recent rains, and caused great losses: subscriptions have been raised, and the Emperor sent Generals Genlis and Favé to render assistance, the Emperor and Empress subscribing £5,000 sterling.

The Dutch Chambers having passed a vote of censure on the Government, the Ministry have dissolved them and ordered new elections.

We have conflicting accounts from Candia, but it appears the Turkish and Egyptian troops have quelled the insurrection. Another revolution was feared in Epirus, but as Russia abstains from direct intervention the Sultan is enabled to prevent disturbances. The Sublime Porte shews much liberality to the Christian subjects. The Vice-roy of Egypt is going to give a constitution to his people.

From Spain we learn that the Government has offered the Palace of Alhambra as a residence for the Pope. The mediation of England and France is accepted in the Chilian question. The railway from Madrid to Andalusia has been opened, and that to Badajos will be inaugurated for the traffic on the 19th. Gen. O'Donnell will spend the winter in Paris. Gen. Prim, Emilio Castelar, and others have taken refuge in Belgium.

It is said the Czar will send Gortchakoff to Paris to propose to Napoleon the partition of Turkey and independence of Poland.

The Empress of Mexico is said to be very ill.

TWO BANK FAILURES.

The suspension was announced this afternoon of the Asiatic Bank, consequent upon a long continued run upon the deposits at its Bombay branch. The total liabilities, only a small portion of which are in this country, amount to three and a half millions sterling, and the prospects of the liquidation must be for some time in great uncertainty, owing to the impossibility at present of estimating the value of the Indian assets. A hope is expressed, however, that these assets will admit of payment in full without further calls upon the shareholders. Among the debtors is the great Parsee house of Premchund Roychund, whose recent failure is understood greatly to have intensified the run upon the Asiatic Bank. The authorized capital of this bank is £2,000,000 of which £625,000 is paid up. It was established in India 1863, and in London 1864. The shares are of £20 each, with £10 paid, and for a long time after their issue they commanded a high premium. The price is now 1 to 3. The bank has branches and agencies at Bombay, Calcutta, Simgapore, Ceylon, Hongkong, Shanghai, &c., and being incorporated by charter its shareholders are liable for double the amount of their subscriptions. In April, 1865, the dividend declared was at the rate of 20 per cent. per annum, but at the meeting in May last it was announced that the estimated losses for the 12 months ended the 31st of December were 142,000 against £61,494 realized profits, and it would be necessary to write off half the reserve fund of £175,000 leaving that fund at £87,500.

The suspension has been announced by telegram of the Bank of Upper Canada. The head office of this establishment is at Toronto, and it has branches or agencies in most of the principal towns of the province. Its nominal capital is £800,000, of which £387,000 is paid up, and the shareholders, under its Act of incorporation, are liable for double the amount of their holdings. The Government of Canada some time ago transferred its business from this bank to the Bank of Montreal, and of late years it is understood to have been practically in a state of liquidation. The amount of liabilities and the immediate cause of the stoppage are as yet unknown, but an impression seems to be entertained that the event is not likely to be followed by any extensive mischief in the colony.

AMERICA.

New York, Sept. 28, evening.

Despatches from Washington emphatically deny the report that the President had changed his policy with regard to the adoption by the South of the Constitutional amendment. There is, however, reason to believe that he contemplates recommending Congress to pronounce against the representation of all the States, and proposing a Constitutional amendment which will embrace, in a less objectionable form, the essential elements of those amendments now pending.

The Committee of the Cleveland Soldiers and Sailors' Convention has paid a visit to President Johnson, and presented him with a report of their proceedings. Generals Gordon and Grange had made speeches, stating that the Convention desired peace, and that the Union would soonest be restored in accordance with the theory of the Federal Government when the measure proposed met the approval of all loyal people in the North, South, East, and West. Any proposition not accomplishing this end would not secure the object for which the soldiers had fought. In replying to the Committee, President Johnson referred them to his previous career as evidence of what his future conduct would be, and declared that constitutional limitations must be observed if free government is to exist.

A mass Convention of soldiers and sailors favouring the Radical policy has assembled at Pittsburg, and reported a series of strongly Radical resolutions. General Butler addressed the Convention, demanding that General Lee, as well as Mr. Davis, should be hanged, and declaring that the adoption of the Constitutional amendment would not insure the admission of the Southern States.

Mr. Davis's trial is again postponed beyond October.

President Johnson has appointed General Dix Minister of the United States to France and Naval Officer of New York. It is believed that he will accept the former appointment. Mr. Bigelow has been recalled at his own request.

Mr. H. Emery, of Kansas, has been appointed United States' Minister at the Hague.

According to advices from Canada, rumours existed that the Fenians threatened a movement along the Vermont frontier. The Canadian military forces were kept ready to move at a moment's notice.

MEXICO.

New York, Sept. 28.

Intelligence received here from Mexico (via San Francisco), dated the 19th inst., states that the French troops and fleet had abandoned Guaymas, and that the town was occupied by the Liberals.

The Liberal General Martinez had slaughtered the garrison of Xerez.

The Austrian General Lanuberg had been killed.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The packet arrived true to time, bringing back several absent friends. Seldom do we recollect such a passenger list as the present. Nearly all our barraqueros are now back in Buenos Ayres, and our two leading brokers, Messrs. Green and Boyd, have also arrived safely.—We read in the Times that 50,000 sovereigns were taken from the Bank of England to send to the River Plate, and we notice that the Arno has brought £52,000 for the Mauá Bank.

The news from England, financially, is not to say the best: although money in London is easy at 4 per cent., still there have been two more bank failures, and the Times says:—"The fall in all descriptions of securities has made further progress to-day, and those persons who are compelled to effect realizations find very little difference between the present time and the worst periods of the panic."

Wool news is rumored to be rather good, although we can find nothing in the papers about the market.

The news of the battle of the 18th July, published in the Times, astonished all who knew anything about the River Plate, and depressed Brazilian Stock. Our London colleague stated that the allies suffered two defeats, in which they lost 260 officers and 8000 men. We notice that the Argentine Stock is now selling on the London Stock Exchange and rules at from 72 to 75. Nearly all Stocks have suffered; the River Plate Bank Stock, however, rules firm at £10 premium.

The morning yesterday could not be more unfavorable for the landing of the Arno's passengers: the mail-bags got wet; and how our friends got ashore in such incessant rain it is difficult to imagine. Nothing can be more annoying or disheartening to strangers arriving from Europe than to enter port on a wet morning. The trip from the outer roads to the mole in a wet dirty whaleboat is worse than the whole voyage across the Atlantic.

We have received a copy of the minutes of the last meeting of the Buenos Ayres Great Southern Railway, held in London; also the report of the inspecting committee. These documents are of great interest for our subscribers: owing to press of matter we hold them over until to-morrow.

The last performance of the Opera Co. will be given to-night, in the Forza del Destino: we hope the public will pay M. Pestalardo the well-deserved compliment of a full house for his farewell.

Respecting the Donoghue auction we are glad to say the prices realized are even better than those published. The portions of the flocks belonging to the medianeros were sold at 30, and in some cases the wool appertaining to those shares was sold on the sheep's back at $65; indeed, from what we hear of the auction, it is to be regretted that that there was not more sheep to be sold, as the last flocks realized the best prices.

The coal mine about which there was so much fuss, turns out after all to be a sham. About the year 1851 a cartman named Chasareta occupied the corner of Calle Lujan and the beach, having a pile of these barrels of asphalt: he had it lying in the yard, some 20 or 30 barrels, we believe, belonging to Mr. George Bell. The asphalt it appears melted and escaped from the barrels, the cartman took no care of it whatever, and perhaps it was thrown out, and herein have we the history of this extraordinary coal mine, about which the Government, we believe, has given a patent, and we understand a lawsuit as to priorities for discovery is now pending. We also hear that a barraquero who had a quantity of this useless matter in deposit, finding no one paid storeage had it thrown out.

The Provincial Government has called for a special meeting of the Legislature to consider the paper dollar redemption and other matters. We publish the note of the Government.

The special agent appointed by Government to attend to the expropriation of lands for the Central Argentine Railway is about to call an auction of some splendid estancia lands in the province of Santa Fé. We expect to get the advertizement in a few days.

Some gentlemen called at our office yesterday to say that on accompanying their friends to the French packet on Monday they were told that passengers only were allowed on board: of course no cocktails were to be had. One gentleman was, however, fortunate enough to be able to induce one of his friends (a passenger) to obtain a stale roll, with which the poor unfortunates who had to return consoled themselves until their arrival in town.

Last Saturday the comisario of Sta. Lucia sold off some 800 capones, brought in from the camp for the butchers: it would seem that there was some thing wrong about the 'guia.'

At Don Mariano Billinghurst's auction of the late Thomas Donohue's sheep the attendance was unusually good, and one buyer, Sr. Machado, actually came from Rosario. The shorn sheep sold cheap, $17 6 rls., while but two years ago these sheep would have sold for 45 to $50 each. This stupendous fall in the value of sheep was never so apparent as in the present case, where all the sheep on the estancia have to be sold to pay off debts which but a couple of years ago one or two flocks would have more than paid for.

We notice with pleasure the opening of the new Barraca del Oriente, in the Plaza Constitucion, by the new barraquero firm of Lamas, Rohl and Co. We recommend the new concern to our subscribers, since we have no doubt they will receive every attention.

Mr. Vanderwyde, of the flourishing photographic firm in Montevideo of Bate & Co., we learn, purposes leaving for Europe shortly, in order to attend the opening of the Paris Exhibition in 1867.

On the authority of the Tribunita, we hear the loss of Mr. Harris, of the Vichadera, in his flocks by the late storm amounts, to no less than 10,000 sheep. We are happy to say that we believe this estimate is grossly exaggerated, as several subscribers from that neighborhood have been in our office since the storm, and they have made no mention of such stupendous loss. The Vichadera is, no doubt, one of the largest sheep farms in the Banda Oriental, but still we doubt if they have lost there one-fourth the number stated.

A gentleman who has just returned from Chascomus, states that the loss of sheep on the Gandara estancia has been by no means so severe as was rumored; a number of old, poor sheep died, and nothing more. The Gandara wool is not sold in our market this year, but will be shipped direct to Europe.

In the northern partidos there is a great levy of horses going on for the frontier service: Sr. Duberty, the Chacabuco judge, we hear has gathered no less than 130 fat horses, which he has given to the Government.

Latest advices from Pergamino report that not an estanciero in the partido has as yet got a copy of the Rural Code. What an unhappy state! And yet, at Mackern's far-famed bookstore any number of this most useful book, and even in English, can be obtained.

Our museum was enriched yesterday by a rare acquisition—the figure-head of the lost barque Napoleon III. We have given this memento of the terrible storm of Oct. 28th, '66, a prominent position in our office: the head-piece is really splendidly carved, and is of such stupendous size as to have a most imposing effect on our camp subscribers, when they come in to visit us. Our warmest thanks are due to a kind and thoughtful subscriber for this splendid relic: the figure is so immense that it looks like a statue. It was washed ashore on the Northern Railway, and bears a most striking resemblance to the Emperor.

The 'grillos de sangre' are another very interesting addition to our collection: Sinbad picked them up at the Paso de la Patria, in October last, when wandering over that blood-stained locality, taking notes. These shackles are so heavy and ponderous that it is difficult to realise that they were intended for human frame, being far more appropriate for an elephant; yet they bear the stamp of long service, and many a poor fellow who has had his legs in them has been sent to his long home. Sinbad says this class of irons is only used with prisoners condemned to be shot, as the shackles for small offences are light and single, while these are heavy and double. We have been promised some other curiosities by an American gentleman, which we hope to receive in a few days.

The steamer Snipe, which arrived here on Monday, is a sister ship of the Widgeon. She has been sold to Messrs. Benitez, we believe, for about 50,000 pats., and is a splendid boat.

The coal business in Corrientes is now, we hear, completely overdone: several vessels are lying in the harbor of Corrientes, selling coal by retail at from 30 to 40 pats. per ton, but there is no great demand: all the sailors and marines on board the Brazilian squadron are kept all day long cutting wood in the forests of the Gran Chaco.

We hear that there is a Semanario (Paraguayan paper,) dated September 29th, in town, in which the Paraguayan version of the battle of Curupaity is given: the enemy admit only a loss of 50 men, whilst they state the allies lost some 8,000; they took a number of wounded prisoners, several flags and standards, and some 4,000 muskets.

Mr. Robert Kelly, a respected and wealthy Irish estanciero residing near Moreno, has been elected municipal for the place: no better man could have been chosen for the post. At San Martin there were no municipal elections, owing to the votes of foreigners not inscribed on the register having been rejected; new elections will have to be held.

It is really a surprising fact that, with all our trade and commerce and passenger traffic, we cannot support a small steamer to ply daily between the mole-head and the outer roads. We think some effort ought to be made by the merchants and the Government to keep a small steamer for this service; it is no reason because the Lily tried it, and failed, that another effort should not be made. If the Port Captain would only stir himself, something might be done. Besides the immense passenger trade of the 'ultramar' steamers, scarcely a day passes that we have not one or more vessels arriving with passengers and emigrants. No one can go off now to the packet, simply because there is no possible means of doing it in less than a whole day, and sometimes much longer: our readers cannot have forgotten the case of the German gentleman, who was seven days in going out and coming in from the outer roads, and during all that time could only spare five minutes on board the vessel he went out to see.

EXTRAORDINARY ASSEMBLY OF THE CHAMBERS.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION.

B. Aires, Nov. 10th 1866.

The Provincial Government.

To the Honorable Legislative Assembly.

The ordinary session has closed without the Legislature giving its sanction to certain matters of vital interest for the country as well as indispensable for the regular action of Government. Among these is the Budget, which must be duly ratified according to express prescription of the Constitution, and which is a fundamental principle of our system and of all good administration. Also the bill for selling public lands within the frontier; and others which will be specified below, requiring immediate attention, as well to tranquilize public interests as to meet urgent necessities.

But, there is one matter in particular to which the Government would direct your notice, in the hope that the Provincial Chambers will lend every co-operation towards arriving at a speedy and radical solution. The fluctuations recently suffered by our currency, causing inevitable perturbations to trade, again demonstrate the necessity of making every effort to redeem it, and thus enable our banking institutions to work with entire liberty, and perhaps one day rival the splendid banking systems of N. America and Europe. The Government does not lose sight of this all-important problem. On entering office, we found among the laws in course of fulfilment, that of Nov. 1864 relative to the manner of redeeming the currency. The period fixed for commencement of the operation was near at hand, but an insuperable difficulty presented itself, since the means had not been accumulated, as decreed by law, to aid in its fulfilment. Among the resources so indicated were, the proceeds of Public Land sold, the capital of the Bank, and the price to be obtained for the Western Railway (after deducting what is due to the Bank). Meantime, only very small fractions of Public Lands had been sold, defeating all expectations in this particular, and the Railway remained in the hands of Government without its having been even offered for sale in the great money markets where a buyer might be found.

The new Government at once set about removing these difficulties, and submitted two projects of Law, to prolong the period for selling the Railway, and amend the law for selling Public Lands so as to place them within the reach of all. The Executive regrets to say that it waited in vain for the sanction of these and other bills during the ordinary legislative session.

Thus the matter at present stands. The law for redeeming the currency cannot be at present carried into effect for want of funds, and we must remain for a long time powerless to repress the sad results of every fluctuation arising from our inconvertible currency, unless some other means be vigorously adopted. One other expedient is hinted at by the law of November, foreseeing that the means provided might eventually fall short, and the Government was authorized in such case to negotiate an internal loan. But, the law, supposing that the other means would prove sufficient, set limits to this operation that are at present inadmissible, since the cost of redemption would almost entirely depend hereon.

The great influx of specie, the state of the European money-markets, offer great facilities for making a loan; besides the favorable auspices of increased prosperity in the Province, and the enhanced value of our currency. The Executive, moreover, has good reason to believe that we can effect a large loan in this country.

At the same time we may arrive at a similar result by another means, and the Government is at present deliberating as to which is the more expedient. The Bill will be duly laid before your Hon. Chambers, and at present we shall merely mention this and the other matters which call for the Extraordinary Session now deemed necessary: they are as follows—

1. The Budget, and estimates for Bank, Chambers, and Public Credit.
2. Project of Taxation.
3. Bill for sale of Public Lands within the frontier.
4. Bill for sale of lands in 'sobrante.'
5. Bill on the Bragado lands.
6. Bill for the conversion of paper money.
7. Note about the Municipality Law of October 1865.
8. Municipal estimate and taxes.
9. Cession of the lottery proceeds to the Municipality.
10. Bill for establishment of a Civil Tribunal.
11. Bill on Rural Municipalities.
12. Cession of lands to the cacique Rondeau.
13. Bill on exceptional crimes.

THE WAR IN THE NORTH.

CORRESPONDENCE OF MATTOS.

MR. WASHBURN AND THE SHAMOKIN.

Curuzú, Nov. 9th, 1866.

The arrival of Mr. Washburn, American envoy to Paraguay, on the 5th inst. broke in agreeably upon the monotony of things here. His coming had been generally known, and gave rise to much speculation: some said he was bringing an iron-clad vessel to force the passage, others, that the allies would quietly let him pass up, on condition he should not again come down during the war. On the 2nd inst. Admiral Tamandaré sent an officer to Corrientes to meet him, but the Shamokin was already near the Tres Bocas, and on coming up near the Ivahy the latter signalled her to stop, which request she at once complied with.

The Brazilian commander went aboard whereupon Capt Crosby advised him that the American Minister was aboard with a free-pass from the Brazilian and Argentine Governments. The Brazilian replied that he would seek orders from his Admiral how to act, and requested Capt. Crosby to wait for a reply. Accordingly next day (3rd) Lieut. Silva, the Admiral's secretay, came down, saying the Shamokin might pass up to the fleet. On arriving at this anchorage, about ½ a league below Curupaity, the Shamokin was boarded by the Admiral, who had a conference with Mr. Washburn.

Next day (4th) a flag of truce was sent by the Admiral to Pres. Lopez, requesting a suspension of hostilities for some hours, till Mr. Washburn could be landed safely at Curupaity. The flag of truce was borne by the Admiral's secretary, accompanied by a Brazilian and an American officer and 20 mounted Brazilians, carrying also the American and Brazilian flags. The Paraguayans allowed them to come up, but a ball accidentally whizzed by Lieut. Silva's head, after which an officer came out, representing himself as secretary to Gen. Diaz, but he was such a shabby-looking fellow that the American officer would not shake hands with him. He said he had sent to advise Gen. Diaz of their coming. They then began chatting, and Lieut. Silva offering the Paraguayan a cigar, the latter took the two that were in the case.

In a little while permission came, to pass on to see Lopez; and some lean horses were given them, whereon they advanced to Paso Pucú, and the American officer had an interview with Lopez. Next morning he returned with Lopez's reply to the Admiral. At noon, on the 5th, the vessels of the fleet hoisted white flags, the belligerents doing the same on land, and the Shamokin went up to Curupaity, where Mr. and Mrs. Washburn landed: at 5.30 the Shamokin came down and anchored at the Cerrito. At 8 p.m. two blank shots from each side announced the armistice ended. The Brazilians had been during the day talking with the enemy near the Paraguayan lines: Lieut. Silva says the Paraguayan soldiers are very gentlemanly and white skinned.

The night of the 5th passed off quietly, but next morning there was a fierce guerilla between the Brazilian 2nd Corps and the enemy: the Brazilians were driven out of the wood, with 2 officers and 13 men hors de combat.

At noon word was brought to Port Alegre that an American officer from Curupaity wanted to pass the lines. The General at once sent to consult the Admiral, and the latter sent him a horse, saying he permitted him to pass as "a private individual".

At night it was supposed the enemy were fortifying the wood, and the Enrique Martinez fired 19 shots in the direction, without any reply.

Since then everything is quiet, but, last night, we heard firing at Tuyuty, where Gen. Argollo has dislodged them from a thicket which they much covet. It seems Port Alegre and Tamandare will retire on the arrival of the Marquis de Caxias.

Mr. and Mrs. Washburn proceed overland to Humayta and thence in a Paraguayen steamen to Asuncion.

ANOTHER COMMISSARY MURDERED

Higueritas, Friday, Nov. 9.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen,

Our new Comissario, Don Felipe Ferrer, was murdered yesterday, about 11 o'clock in the morning, by three armed men, two of whom (brothers) had recently arrived from Entre Rios. They are well known here, being natives of the camp that contains 'monte,' about two leagues to the north of the town.

It is impossible to know exactly how the assassination occurred. It took place in a solitary spot in the street or road that leads from Zimmerman's 'saladero' to the Plaza del Resguardo. On one side of the narrow road is a fence, and on the other a sticky 'pantano,' leaving a small space, about three yards in width, for the road or street, for street it is, although it does not look much like one. The 'Commissario' had been at the 'saladero,' and the assassins were also there skinning or killing 'ovejas,' but whether they left the 'saladero' before or after the 'Commissario' I do not know.

The 'Commissario' had no escort, or no arms with him; the assassins were armed with long heavy 'facons.' The deed was not seen by any other person than a woman, who cried out 'that some men were killing a man.' But the distance was too great to admit of seeing the affair distinctly.

One arm of the 'Commissario' was nearly severed from his body, between the elbow and hand: in the head he had a deep gash that must have killed him instantly, and from behind he had a horrible 'puñalada' that went through his body.

The heavy loaded 'revenque' that the 'Commissario' usually carried with with him he had left behind, or it had got mislaid, or been made away with. As yet the assassins have not been apprehended (at least the two brothers), and there is little probability that they will be taken by the authorities of this place or Carmelo, as the islands of the Paraná and the coast of Entre Rios are so near and so accessible.

If Gen. Flores does not vigorously cause these murderers to be hunted up, and demand them from the Government of Entre Rios, if they should be there, he is not the energetic man I take him to be.

It is now no longer 'child's play,' the authorities are 'openly despised,' and those invested with authority here 'constantly' assassinated.

I do not speak of our 'Jefe Politico,' he lacks 'alcance,' as he let the murderers of Commissario Don José Gallardet escape, and remain escaped, so I presume he will also allow the murderers of Don Felipe Ferrer to escape, and to remain escaped. But as the Government now has a head, which it never had all the time Flores remained in Paraguay, we now have hopes that the murderers of both 'Commissarios' will be hunted up and secured. It is perfectly feasible to do it. An energetic and competent man, furnished with the necessary force, and the necessary funds, would do it certainly in two weeks' time.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Respectfully yours,
VIATOR.

THE PROCESSION ON SUNDAY.

The Festival of St. Martin, the patron of this city, was celebrated with great pomp on Sunday. The Archbishop and the Bishop of Montevideo assisted, and the parish priest of San Ignacio pronounced a most touching and eloquent discourse. The ceremonies of the day concluded with a solemn procession of the most Blessed Sacrament. A small 'picquet' of the garrison, bearing the national flag, and accompanied by a brass band, led the way, next followed the various religious communities, the secular clergy with the parochial crosses, and a large number of citizens, amongst whom were many ladies. The canopy was supported by the canons and members of the 'Sacred Heart,' the richness and elaborate workmanship of whose dress quite dazzled the spectators.

On leaving the Plaza the procession slowly wound its way up Rivadavia, and turning down Florida proceeded as far as Cangallo, whence doubling into San Martin it returned to the Cathedral. A small police force was posted along the line of march to keep the way clear and the crowd in order. These worthy functionaries were gaily dressed, and were decidedly of more ornament than use. The way was strewn with flowers, and frequently the pavilion was covered with the most choice exotics, which the ladies showered down from the balconies and 'azoteas' as it passed. Such was the abundance of flowers, that several families used only a particular color or kind; and we were particularly struck by the simple beauty of one house in San Martin, which was covered with woodbine. Almost every house we passed was thus decorated, but by far the most attractive were those of Messrs. Olivero, Fussoni, Francischelli, Manigot, and Bulrick, which were literally covered with flags and flowers.

Six altars had been erected in the various streets through which we passed. They were really magnificent and very creditable to the proprietors.

Sr. Mosquera's was particularly remarkable for the rich festoons, &c. Sr. Miro's was also very original, the rich altar cloth trimmed with lace admirably harmonised with the fresh flowers.

Sr. Olivero's altar was arranged in the most artistic style, and the display of the china vases and golden vessels, filled with beautiful white feathers, showed an unrivalled taste.

Sr. Llavallol's altar had decidedly a more religious appearance than any of the others; it was in fact a little temple, made of damask: the whole exterior was covered with festoons of flowers which perfumed the whole street.

Sr. Pacheco's was smaller, but not less elegant, than the rest, and was the work of the eminent florist Maurino.

The most attractive of all the altars was the one at the side door of the Cathedral; its simplicity and good taste attracted universal admiration.

On the whole the feast of Sunday is the grandest we ever remember in this city, and will long be remembered for its order and magnificence.—Tribuna.

A PRISONER ESCAPED.

Last Thursday on the Southern Railway, there occurred one of those cases which are a disgrace to the police arrangements of this country. A 'vigilante' was bringing a prisoner to town, who, we hear, had been sentenced to 8 years imprisonment for having shot a man somewhere to the south of Dolores, when the policeman, who appeared to be on good terms with the prisoner, got drinking, and plied the bottle so fast that when he arrived at Glew station he was jolly tight or worse. He here imagined that the prisoner had escaped, but it did not occur to him until after the train had started and again stopped a moment after passing the siding; he got out of the train, staggered about to seek the prisoner, and although the guard advised him that we were about to start, he said that he must find his 'preso', and staggered along a few steps further to tumble down quietly into the thistles, wishing his prisoner in any amount of warm places. The prisoner, we believe, remained all the time in the train, but it is very likely quietly disappeared on arriving at Buenos Ayres.

SPECTATOR.

GREAT SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

The report of the Committee of Investigation of the Buenos Aires Great Southern Railway has been issued this afternoon, and is satisfactory. They find that the books have been kept with faithfulness and accuracy, and that the contractors, Messrs. Peto and Betts, have completed the works in a very solid manner. A high opinion is expressed of the services of Mr. Parish, the chairman of the local Board at Buenos Aires, and also as to the fitness of Mr. Banfield, the general manager. It is added that "from all the inquiries they have made it appears to the committee that the conduct of the Government towards the company has been entirely honourable, and gives every reason to believe that the company will receive at their hands a punctual performance of all their obligations."

DEFINITION OF A "GENTLEMAN."

B. Ayres, Nov. 13th 1866.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen,

Not being altogether satisfied with Mr. White's definition of a "gentleman", as published in your sprightly journal of Sunday last, may not this knowledge-seeking community hope to be further enlightened on the subject (if, indeed, a perfect gentleman can be a subject) by a reply from one of Mr. White's professionally fellow-gentlemen and fellow-instructors, Mr. Ryan, Mr. Powell, or Mr. Lewis?

I am, dear Messrs. Editors.

Yours, very truly,

A DESCENDANT OF ADAM.

Letters at this Office for

Richard Dreaper, Esq., Mr. Kidd, J. W. Morcom, Esq., Mrs. E. Jones, Miss M. Kidd, Mr. Morcom, Mr. W. Wilson, A. B. Butler, Mr. S. Pollock, R. T. Goold, Esq., Enoch Richards, J. C. Reeves, John Tobin, Rojas; W. S. M'Ilwain, Puento de Pilar.

ON 'CHANGE.

November 13, 1866.

Paper price of Ounces,		$372½
Do.	Sovereigns,	113½
First price of Patacons		23.10
Second	do.	23.35
Last	do.	23.25

Cash sales, 50,500.

Specie opened very low this morning, and the market had a very flat appearance, but the note of the Government, calling for a special meeting of the Chambers, and the report of the committee being discussed, specie grew much firmer, nevertheless the majority of the brokers are speculating for a fall, and very little faith is attached to either the committee or the Legislature effecting anything before twelve months. The report of the committee to Government was much talked of, and although not as yet made public the ideas of the members are well known. It is proposed either to make a foreign 7 per cent. loan or to authorize the bank to make a home loan in the shape of 9 per cent. bonds, which, being held by a private bank, will justify the holder to ask for the right of emission to the extent of the bonds. The objections urged to these plans are that in the Chambers no foreign loan will be countenanced, and as regards the Bank Bond Loan it is naturally asked what security does the bank offer for these bonds. As both these matters have to be amply discussed, as yet it is premature to say anything about them, but as they are openly discussed we mention it.

The Bolsa was crowded to-day with new arrivals: Mr. Van Kicken, Mr. Bunge, Mr. Green, Mr. Boyd, Mr. Knapp, and several others, who have all returned from Europe, all looking much improved by their trip. Mr. Drabble has also returned from his magnificent estancia in the Banda Oriental—the total loss by the storm on his establishment is only 200 sheep.

The packet has brought another heavy remittance to the Maua Bank, two hundred and sixty thousand patacons.

The Baron Maua is expected back from Montevideo on Thursday.

The time sales of specie to-day were as follows:

For Thursday	72,000	23 25
Saturday	142,500	23 20
November 20	92,000	23 30
130,500 on long dates.
Dec. 31st	10,000	23 30

Total sales to-day, 487,500.

In National Bonds nothing done. It was said on 'Change that some orders have come out in the packet, but the market looks dull.

Messrs. J. P. Boyd and Co. have placed on the berth the Italian barque Marsalla, to load for Antwerp.

Owing to the very inclement state of the weather, there was scarcely anything done in the wool plazas to-day.

In the South Plaza Mr. Banfield has hung up a slate on which arrivals are marked, which is found a great public convenience; and it is to be hoped that the Western Railway will adopt the same plan.

In the South Plaza there are 30 bullock carts and about 7,000 ar. in the station.

In the North Plaza the arrivals by train are heavy, but the awful state of the Flores road compels all the carts to go to the South Plaza.

Messrs. Lamas Rohl and Co. have opened their new barraca in the South Plaza, alongside the railway station, called Barraca del Oriente. We have no doubt this new concern will do a large business, as Mr. Rohl, who has some 17 years' experience, also enjoys a very wide and influential connection. Mr. Lamas was formerly in the Maua Bank of this city.

We have the following wool sales in the South Plaza—

800 @ fine wool at	76
300 @ do do	77
150 @ do do	78

Several lots of sheepskins, mata-loro, at 20½ per doz.

Business in the Custom-house this day—

Italian brigantine Eugenio, for Antwerp, by C W. Benn & Co. 6 bales washed wool, 267 bales dirty wool, hides, tallow and sheepskins. (Mr. Chas's wool shipped in this vessel.)

French ship Coquimbo, for Havre, by Sagory and Lennyeux wool, hides and tallow. Some wool shipped in bags.

It is rumoured that Mr. Drabble's wool has been sold at a reserved price, supposed to be six patacons.

In liquidation room—

Patacons 23 25.

National Bonds, 5,000 sold at 42.

The advices by the packet as regards wool and hides is regarded as favorable; tallow rules the same.

SEWING MACHINES.

The Public have long felt the want of a Sewing Machine which should be something besides a mere toy, something USEFUL as well as ornamental. Puting Machines in order that are constantly becoming deranged is perplexing work, and when intricate Machines are used nine times in ten the parties become disgusted and lay them aside as worthless. All the requirements of a GOOD MACHINE are centred in the "Wood," and they have given universal satisfaction wherever used. They are so simple a child can operate them; they are powerful, still, and fast; they will sew any fabric, from the thinnest muslin to the coarsest cloth or leather, with equal facility, and in the hands of one with common judgment will never get out of order. All Machines are guaranteed to be what they are represented, and intructions to operate given to the satisfaction of all parties. SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Cangallo--103.

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

Those advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from nine a.m. till Three p.m. on Week Days and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

P.P. MAUA & Co.,
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p.%) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

LANDS IN CORDOBA.

Auction by Government on the 22nd, 23rd, and 24th of November.

To be Sold at the Cabildo of the City of Cordoba on the 22nd, 23rd, and 24th inst., at 11 a.m., the following Four Lots of Public Land: the price payable one-half in gold and one-half in vouchers of the Provincial Debt, properly authenticated, and in instalments to be determined at the auction.

LOT 35, A.

This Lot is situated at the Medano del Hozno, Department of Union, Saladillo, about five and a-half leagues E.N.E. of Villa Sauce and seven and a-half S. of Saladillo, on the right bank of the river of that name. It comprises three square leagues, 878 cuadras, 6,102 yards. Bounded on the S. by the Merced and Arrascaeta lands, on the N. by lot 33 [belonging to Mr. Samuel Lafone] and lot 39 of Fiscal lands, on the E. by lot 36, and on the W. by lot 34.

The land is of superior quality, especially in the lowlands of Divisadero and Trovol: the rest is interspersed with soft grass. There are some clumps of wood at the Medano del Hozno. The water of the Saladillo is here quite sweet, it being a branch of the Rio Cuarto, but becomes brackish five leagues lower down, among the salty marshes. The river is always high and full of fish, and has only one ford—Paso Cañas—on the land.

LOT 41, A.

This lot is about eight leagues from Saladillo, Department of Union, and comprises four square leagues. Bounded on the N. by lots 46 and 47 (belonging to Mr. Patrick Campbell) and part of Don José Cortes Funes' lands, on the S. by lot 37 of Fiscal lands, on the E. by lot 42, and on the W. by lot 40.

The land comprises the well-known Mollecitas, clumps of timber adjoining a lagoon of fresh water, and has soft grass, especially in the 'cañadas' and southern camps. Water and timber are scarce, but good wells are found from one to six yards in depth. This lot will be subdivided and sold in two lots of two square leagues each.

LOT 42, A.

This lot is about nine leagues from Cruz-Alta, and eight from Saladillo, comprising four square leagues. Bounded on the N. by lots 47 [belonging to Messrs. Campbell and Funes] and 48 of Fiscal lands, on the S. by lot 37, on the E. by lot 43, and on the W. by lot 41.

The lot includes Tasis Chicos and Juncales, where there are some lagoons and thickets. The camp is excellent, with abundance of soft grass. The lagoons are not perennial, but the water is fresh, and wells can be made at one to six yards deep. This lot will be subdivided and sold in four lots of one square league each.

LOT 81, A.

This lot is in the district of Fraylo Muerto, three leagues N. of Villa Sauce, and twelve S. of Fraylo Muerto, comprising four square leagues and seventy-one yards. Bounded on the N. by lots 77 and 78 [belonging to Messrs. Funes and Otero], on the E. by lot 82 of Fiscal lands, and on the W. and S. by lands claimed by the State.

The lot includes Bajo Hondo and Saladitas, so well known for fine pasture for horned cattle: in the N.W. there is soft grass. There is no timber. The water of the lagoons is salty, but wells of fresh water can be made at two to six yards deep. This lot will be subdivided in four lots of one square league each.

The plans and maps may be seen at the Contaduria in the city of Cordoba, and at the Standard Office, Buenos Ayres.

COTTON GINS.

BURGESS & KEY

Obtained the SILVER MEDAL for their Improved Emery's American Cotton Gins, at the Turin Exhibition.

The Report states that "the two Gins exhibited by Burgess & Key were found capable of ginning a greater quantity of Cotton than all the other Gins of different systems."

The many improvements made in these Gins by Burgess & Key, have been the result of experiments made at every variety of Cotton, and also from experiences in Egypt, India, Italy, Greece, Smyrna, Australia, &c., &c., where many of the largest Ginning Establishments have adopted these Gins, and in one case twenty-one of them are used in one establishment, each of which will turn out 800 lbs. of clean Cotton per "hour."

The capacity of the Gins varies from 25 to 300 lbs. of clean Cotton per hour, according to the size.
