The picture is at first sight disheartening, and yet no more than many sario; we salute this Argentine rege people expected, nor do we feel quite negator on his arrival. The Minister confident that the disgraceful list is of War does not start to-day; he will ended. Happily for the honor of Bueleave with Col. Dillon some day nex nos Ayres and success of the campaign, these mutinies are confined to the militias of the provinces, whose levies are necessarily gaucho recruits. and we should only wonder if they all false news. came voluntarily and in good order from their remote homes to the place of rendezvous. Neither is it fair to inculpate the War-office for not better providing against such misfortunes, when the means for so doing really do not exist. Nor yet can we classify the deserters as traitors, or allies of the enemy, if we consider how little they understand of the cause or nature of the present war, and how barsh it must seem to them to be dragged away a thousand miles, shirtless and penniless, leaving their families unprotected and unprovided for.

The misfortune is one of the many incidental to a campaign, and, what must be mended or bullock carts will is worst, in most cases can neither be guarded against nor repaired. The best generals and most highly dis ciplined armies have at various times suffered from the evil, which, like an effect of climate, is often so contagious as to be more alarming than the enemy in the field.

Who can forget the mutiny of the Nore, when the crown of George III., threatened on one side by Napoleon, and on the other by the Irish struggle for Independence, was abandoned in its utmost need by the defenders of its wooden walls, until the genius of Britain carried the monarch and peoerisis? And in later times we have reputable building in the city; one first-class English school, several of troops, fully disciplined and equipped, the Port of Buenos Ayres, and immerose up to a man against the British diately adjoining this a dark gloomy dominion, but were finally subdued aperture where lazy soldiers and Go In every page of aucient and modern history we have like instances, and day. #### ANOTHER INDIAN INVASION.

It is unhappily apparent that the saages of the Pampas take occasion of our troubles with Paraguay to renew their depredations on our southern frontier, and of late they have she wn more than ordinary audacity in their inroads. Only a few days ago we mentioned the descent of a small body of Indians on the estancia of Messrs. Mohr and Clausen at Green Island, where they murdered an Englishman and carried off much booty. Much about the same time they made a clean sweep of Mr. Newton's and other estancias, always with the greatest impunity.

As for the greater portion of which belongs the Chilian Indians, they probably to the Government and Irishmen. The extent under tillage is put down at two leagues, whilst that under pasturage was 87; it is now, however, at 130, such has been the increase of settlers. The town being very modern is a small place: it has 2 prisons, 3 schools, 1 church, 16 two story houses, 91 fine azotea houses, and 450 thatched ranchos. It has 30 chacras or small farms,

The census as to stock, &c., is of course much under the mark at present, it was however in 1863, as follows:-Estancias 30, horned cattle 46,192, mares 4941, tame horses 500, Rambouillet and merino sheep 2000, mestiza sheep 100,157, criollo sheep, 10,000, mules 350, pigs 5000. July 17, 1865.

Things are going on here much the same as usual. San Nicolas is exceedingly dull; nothing doing. We feel much the want of 500 men that were taken for the war, and they are now about taking 200 more, some say for the frontier.

The camps are in splendid condition, the señalados excellent, at least in some parts, the parts where there is no 'cardo,' but where there is of the latter they are doing badly. L.

NATIONAL BONDS.

5000 National Bonds for July 31, at 38. The specie business is becoming so insignificant, that it may be truthfully said speculation in gold has ceased to exist. A few years ago it was an every day occurrence for brokers to buy for a single order ten thousand cances. We remark that those who gave such orders now never buy a patacen. The specie market to-day is held by the Government broker: he is the leader at the rail, the commander of the hall. Within the last few days he has sold severa hundred thousand patacons; he knows, to a cer tainty, how the market will go-for 24 hours ahead-come what news may. Brokers watch him, and what he does, with infinitely more at tention than even the army correspondence in the papers. He sold from ten minutes after 11 to-day until the clock struck 2, and was seen at after hours wonding his way to the Governmenthouse, with a red pocket-handkerchief full of bank-notes, which he could hardly carry. Where all this comes from it is difficult to say, but paper money is scarce and gold becoming superabundant. There was great activity in Exchange today. The rate of the banks is 494, although we heard to-day of one of our private banks drawing at 491. One well-known English morehant has drawn at 49). the Company. tals and interest of those who die in is the largest and best Hotel in this city 2. To a propertionate share of the capitheir respective sections. 3. To a proportionate share of the Capitals and Interests of forfeited subscriptions. 4. To a proportion of gains resulting from increased value of the National Bonds acquired by the inversion of tunds.

In the second form the Insured claims 1. Compound Interest on the National Bonds purchased by the Association, 2. A proportionate share of the Interest due on the Capitals of those who die in the respective sections, which ca-pitals are returned to the subscribers

3. A proportion of the interest due on forfeited shares.
4. A proportionate share of the profits arising from the increased value of the National Bonds, acquired by inversion of funds.

Finally, in the third form, gives a right to the corresponding interest produced by the Bonds purchased with their subscriptions, and the succession of the produced interest produced by the Bonds purchased with their subscriptions, and the succession of the product of the cessive reinvestment of such interest, cessive reinvestment of such interest, effected quarterly, when the coupons are paid up by the public treasury.

So marvellous are the benefits arising from the employment of Capitals in Public Funds, assisted by the combinations offected by "La Rienhachora," brade upon the Mortality Tables of Deparcieux, and the interest produced by the 6 per cent. Consolidated Bonds, that taking for a model, the result given by other companies established precisely in the same form and basis, out with an accumulative interest much inferior to that geined by the "Rienhachora," that it is enabled to present as positive the following tables showing the gradual progression of capiing tables showing the gradual progression of capi tals for a subscription of :

SAVINGS BAN BANK MAUA AND GO.

BUENOS AYRES.

The littmence advantages of Accounts Curront are now we generally felt and oppreciated in the two great emporisums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence. The Bank of Mauó and Cu. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their sevings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a sery large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interesting their sevings out at interest, thus providing themselve with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead, of opending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m. till Three pm on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sun deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to pomote the general welfare.

The mank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new wranch of their business will render tummense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1868. BUENOS AYRES.
