IMPRIMATUR.

ASUALTIES IN THE BRAZILIAN FLEET.

The 'Eco del Comercio' publishes the following official returns by Vice-admiral Barroso of the losses in killed, wounded and missing sustained by his fleet in the victory over the Paraguayans on the 11th ult. and the skirmishes of the 13th and 18th, the second being the conflict with the Riachuelo battery in spiking the guns of the Jequitinhonha, and the third in forcing the pass of the Merced defended by a battery of 36 heavy guns and a large infantry force:—

Battle of June 11th.
'Amazonas'—13 killed, 22 wounded.
'Beberibe'—5 killed, 17 wounded.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

General Francia, who is by birth an Oriental, but an officer in the Entre Rios army, will take command of a reserve brigade of infantry about to be quartered in the Parana. Owing to the number of troops at present at Salto and Concordia, the merchants in Montevideo are very busy shipping up goods to both these towns. In Concordia the 'almaceneros' are all cleared out: there is nothing available in any of them.

The little steamer Mercedes is about to be put on the route from Fray Bentos to Gualeguaychu, by order of a committee of the Montevidean merchants, who view with the greatest displeasure that all communication with Gualeguaychu has been cut off so long. The Leda left on the 7th for Liverpool, having finished her cargo in Montevideo. She took several passengers; amongst others, we believe, Mr. Keeling. The Italian steamer Veloce is taking in supplies, and will return to Buenos Ayres immediately. A large supply of Eucalyptus Globulus seed has arrived, and is on sale cheap at a shop in the Calle 25 de August.

We find nothing else in the Montevidean papers. Our correspondent has not now written to us for nearly a fortnight; we know not the cause of his silence.
